

*Life is crazy sometimes,
But we will all get through.
The skies get darker,
You can't see the sun...
But it is still there.*

*One day you will understand,
For now we must trust in the unknown.
The darkness will pass,
We will once again see the sun...
Till then you must remain strong.*

*Everyone goes through tough times,
How you react determines who you are.
You can pitch a fit and pout,
Or you can learn from it...
And become a better person.*

THE SUN WILL SHINE AGAIN!!
